Amersham United Charities provides housing for people in need in accordance with the charity's Governing Document. If you are interested in becoming a resident, you can lodge this interest with the charity's clerk by filling in this form and returning to the postal or email address above.

Please note: when a place becomes available the charity will contact you to fill in an application form. All applications will be reviewed by the Trustees whose responsibility it is to ensure that applicants for almshouses are suitably qualified under the terms of the charity's governing document (see below). This form does not give you any priority over other applicants.

The charity's entry criteria for entrance into the Almshouses are:

- The residents of the almshouses must be poor single (or divorced) women/men, widows/widowers who are resident at the time of appointment in the following areas, in the following order of priority:
 - the area of benefit (the parishes of Amersham and Coleshill)
 - the ancient parish of the Lee
 - the surrounding area
- In addition to observing the above qualification, when appointing residents to the Miss Day's Almshouses, the Trustees should give priority to members of the Church of England.
